ORDER

Sri I.V. Ramana Murty, the then TPBO Amalapuram Municipality in the reference 2nd read above, has submitted Appeal Petition on the punishment of stoppage of two annual grade increments without cumulative effect imposed by the Director of Town & Country Planning, Hyderabad vide proceedings Roc.No.11133/2005/M3-1, dated 01-06-2009

2. In the reference 3rd read above, the appeal petition submitted by Sri I.V. Ramana Murty, the then TPBO, Amalapuram Municipality, has considered and issued orders revising the penalty orders of DTCP and reduced the penalty of stoppage of two annual grade increments to that of penalty of stoppage of one annual grade increment without cumulative effect on Sri I.V. Ramana Murty. In the reference 4th read above, Sri I.V. Ramana Murty has made further appeal explaining the grounds and action taken as per the provision of the A.P. Municipal Act to prevent the unlawful constructions which have not been considered during the course of enquiry. He has stated that the Enquiry Officer has not taken into consideration on the efforts made in the matter, therefore, he has requested to consider the facts on the action taken by him.

3. Further, the applicant has also stated that following additional work entrusted to him with high priority and brooks no delay by the Executive Authority as well as normal legitimate duties of Two Planning activity. He was constrained to devote time to discharge his duties assigned to him for preparatory of work involving collection, collation, tabulation of data socio economic conditions of the inhabitants of the area to be notified as non notified slums which was statutory work from September, 2004 to February, 2005, while the buildings in question are under progress. From, February, 2005 to March, 2005 a special drive was also launched involving Municipal Town Planning Staff in connection with “ Rajiv Nagara Bata”. Moreover at the same time Municipal Election work entrusted to them which is high priority and time bound works i.e., delimitation of election work, preparation of S.C, S.T, B.C, women ward wise particulars of reservation of wards. He has submitted that he was pre occupied with 5th Economic Census work from June, 2005 to Nov, 2005. Subsequently all unlawful building constructions alleged in the charge Memo are covered with the BPS for regularization duly paying the amount to the Municipality. Therefore he contended that there is no loss of revenue or license fee to the Municipality or to the public and there is no complaints received against these constructions by the neighbor or by the public. He has therefore requested the Government to consider the facts and to drop the punishment orders of Director of Town & Country Planning imposed in the reference 1st cited.

4. In this connection, the matter has been reexamined and it has been decided to allow the appeal petition of Sri I.V. Ramana Murty, the then TPBO, Amalapuram Municipality by taking a lenient view and to set aside the penalty orders of the Director of Town & Country Planning in the reference 1st read above.

5. Accordingly Government hereby allow the appeal petition and in supersession of orders issued in the reference 3rd read above, the penalty orders issued by the Director of Town & Country Planning in the reference 1st read above are set aside and exonerate Sri I.V. Ramana Murty, the then TPBO, Amalapuram Municipality of the said charges and drop further action against him.

6. The Director of Town & Country Planning, Hyderabad shall take action accordingly.
